

AUSSIE WANNA LIVE!

It's rumble

In the jungle.

S.O.S.! Aussie's on fire!

Alas! She's lost her attire!

Mother Earth is falling down,

Fire brigades spread all around.

The fire monster is ripping,

Burning down, spitting

Flames and clouds of smoke,

Every being's in a choke.

The giant fire unleashes Hell,

If only we could cast a spell!

When fire tears the unspoilt Nature,

Everything seems an adventure.

Kangaroos, koalas, devils,

Wilderness is in complete chaos.

Scorching weather, a disaster,

Together let's chase away this monster!

Earth is at the mercy of Fate,

Her life and ours are at stake.

Our cry for help is rising,

There's no time for disguising.
Scared faces running to and fro,
Terror hunting high and low.
Nature is ailing,
Wailing and praying
For a rebirth,
For rapturous mirth!
May our rivers of tears extinguish
This nightmare! And never relinquish
To fight against all odds,
Cos' we're finding at great loss.
Eucalypts split and torn,
Human hearts, animals, plants mourn.
Nature is in turmoil,
All the seven worlds boil,
The ecosystem is threatened,
Noises, cries are deadened.
Nature is raging,
Rebelling and urging
People to ponder over
Not doing harm anymore.
Who knows future has in store?
The global warming speaks its word,

This fire stands for reward.
A punishment for mankind,
Brutal, greedy and blind.
An apocalyptic fresco,
Everything is a fiasco!
So let's gather our forces,
And fight for good causes!
God, I'm begging for salvation,
I'm begging for our redemption!
